

Safaa Mohamed Ahmed, 2009

Husband's Violence against Wives and its Effect on Children

The study aims to assess the effect of husband violence against women on child health and survival. The study aims to analyze the prevalence of husbands' violence against wives, to examine the association of violence and its effect on child mortality. The study depends on the Demographic and Health Survey (EDHS, 2005), the study also uses logistic regression model.